REPAIR OF SIRET RIVER DIKE -- Scanteia, No 2371, 10 Mar 49

Repairs on the dike along the Siret River in Covurlui Judet were begun in February. The 15-kilometer-long dike extends into Vama and Braniste Communes. When the work is completed, an 8,000-hectare area of farm land will be protected from floods. All work is to be performed by voluntary labor from the two communes under the direction of the technical division of the Judet.
